2016 Ballpark
of the Year - ballparkdigest.com

Segra Park officially opened on April 14, 2016 as the anchor for a vibrant mixed-use destination in the heart of downtown Columbia, South Carolina.

The ballpark is home to the Columbia Fireflies (Single-A affiliate of the New York Mets), creating a modern, family oriented and fan-friendly experience that rivals any in the league. Designed to reflect the surrounding Bull Street commercial and retail district, the ballpark features a brick facade, elegant arches and an open, 360-degree concourse complete with the latest amenities for an intimate atmosphere to enjoy the game. The newly completed ballpark has served as a catalyst for development in Columbia and a 365 days a year community asset.

“Segra Park is not only our Ballpark of the Year, it’s also one of the best ballparks opened in the last decade.”
